MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

How could the theme for this Sunday's Readings be anything other than the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ? During this final week of Lent, we celebrate the very highs and lows of Jesus' earthly life. And there are several themes, but all of them might be summed up in one word: LOVE. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that we might have life." (John 3:16) We must remember that Jesus didn't come into this world just to be crucified. Rather, He came to show us how much He and the Father love us; even enough to die for us.

In the Processional Reading from the Gospel of Mark (11:1-10), we hear the story of Jesus sending two disciples off to prepare for their final meal together, the Passover. Then we learn of His triumphant procession into Jerusalem where a few days later some of these same people will yell "Crucify Him!" In this story, we can tell that Jesus knows what is just ahead of Him, that with each step He comes closer to death. Still, He is willing to go through with it out of obedience to, and love of, His Father and of all mankind.

The First Reading, from the Prophet Isaiah (50:4-7), we hear from the prophet who, like Jesus, was persecuted because the people didn't like what he said. Here he is explaining how he forged ahead even under severe persecution. You might consider Isaiah as being an early version of Jesus, who was thought by his own people to be a prophet.

The Responsorial Psalm (22:8-24) begins with the words, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" These are the same words that Jesus cries out from the cross; first because He is human and in anguish, but also because these words were written about Him more than 200 years before as a prophecy of God's suffering servant, a role that Jesus is now fulfilling. The end of this psalm is a victory claim in anticipation of the victory of the Resurrection.

The Second Reading, from the Paul's Letter to the Philippians (2:6-11), is a poetic summary of the role of Jesus Christ (the Son of God, coming to earth, living and dying out of love for His Father and for all mankind) and the honor bestowed on Him by the Father: that of being called or recognized by all as "LORD" and equal to God.

The Gospel Reading for Palm Sunday is a three-part reading from the Gospel of Mark (14:1-15:47). In it, we hear the familiar story of the Last Supper, the betrayal of Judas, the arrest and suffering of Jesus and finally the crucifixion. Not until Easter Sunday do we hear the third part of this great triune event. So, listen carefully! Put yourself into the crowd scene. Are you one who is yelling, "Crucify Him!" or are you one who is quietly standing by silently saying, "Oh God, be merciful to me, a sinner?"

Thus begins the most solemn week of our liturgical year. Lent will be over soon, and the great Day of Easter will be here. Will you be able to look back and say that your Lenten Journey was successful so that you can truly partake of the Joy of Easter? It's not too late! Begin today! Something to think about during your prayer time this week!

~Rev. Edward J. Smith 2

PALM SUNDAY

Hosanna to the Messiah!

While Jesus would not be crowned an earthly king, Jesus' entrance into Jerusalem has many parallels to the Messianic expectations of the Hebrew people. Before entering, Jesus requisitions a donkey from its owner. In the ancient world, kings had this right. Yet the animal that Jesus requests is rare -- a colt upon which no one else has sat yet. Yet, it's a donkey. This is no great war-charger, no magnificent animal. Jesus acts with all the authority of an earthly king, yet his kingdom is one of simplicity and peace. As the disciples throw cloaks over the donkey, the crowd spreads theirs on the road. This ancient gesture dates back to the line of kings descended from David. Not only are these physical kingly gestures, but the crowd of followers cries out in jubilation and praise. The Messiah has come to Jerusalem!

ADORATION CHAPEL

“Saint Joseph, patron of the Universal Church, spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary, believed unhesitatingly of the mystery of the Incarnation, in the fruitful virginity and in the divine maternity of Mary. He believed without seeing the miracles that were to fill Judea with His glory and renown of His Holy Name. We too should recognize Jesus in the frail Host that is offered to us at the altar. Here, He is even smaller than at Bethlehem, more hidden than in Saint Joseph’s workshop. Still, it is He, ‘I believe all the Son of God has spoken than Truth’s own word there is no truer token’” ~ Bishop Pierre-Anastase Pichenot

“When the Divine Child was conceived, Mary’s humanity gave Him hands and feet, eyes and ears, and a body with which to suffer. Just as the petals of a rose after a dew close on the dew as if to absorb its energies, so too Mary as the Mystical Rose closed upon Him whom the Old Testament has described as a dew descending upon the earth. When finally she did give Him birth, it was as if a great ciborium had opened and she was holding in her fingers the Guest who was also the Host of the World as if to say, ‘Look this is the Lamb of God; look, this is He who takes away the sins of the world.’” ~Life of Christ, Archbishop Fulton J. Sheen

DIVINE MERCY MEDITATION - PROFOUND PEACE

I have wasted many of God’s graces because I was always afraid of being deluded. God drew me to Himself so powerfully that often it was not in my power to resist His grace when I was suddenly immersed in Him. At these moments, Jesus filled me with such great peace that, later on, even when I tried to become uneasy, I could not do so. And then, I heard these words in my soul: In order that you may be assured that it is I who am demanding all these things of you, I will give you such profound peace that even if you wanted to feel troubled and frightened, it would not be in your power to do so today, but love will flood your soul to the point of self-oblivion (Diary, 143).

Jesus looked at me kindly and said, My daughter, do not be afraid of sufferings; I am with you (Diary, 151).

**The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, in Your great mercy, help me to respond to my troubles with trust! Give me profound peace that will dispel my fears. Amen!

PRO-LIFE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

With the pro-abortion forces so deeply entrenched it is sometimes easy to feel like David confronting Goliath. But like David, we must expose ourselves to the dangers prayerfully and trust in God totally so that God can bring about a victory.

*Lord, let us not be cowards;
give us the courage & wisdom necessary to stand up & fight the evil of abortion & euthanasia today. Amen!*
