MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

The theme of the Readings for the 14th Sunday is "Peace" or, in Hebrew, "Shalom," but what do we mean by Peace? Certainly, we do not mean the opposite of war, at least when we are talking about the kind of Peace that Jesus offers us. In the examples we have in the Readings, Peace means a certain inner "calmness" of spirit that tells us, "Everything will turn out alright." However, that implies Trust. The word Shalom goes even further in its meaning by wishing one Prosperity and Good Health. Yes, everything has its price; and the great gift of divine Peace, as in these examples, requires Trust.

The First Reading is from the Prophet Isaiah (66:10-14c). This passage comes from the last chapter of the writings of Isaiah and the time is after the Israelites (Jews) returned to Israel after their 50 years captivity in Babylon. Their city, Jerusalem, was in ruins, they had no earthly leader and all life seemed to be at rock bottom. The Prophet is encouraging the people to rise up to a new life in the God of Israel who brought them back from Egypt many years before and has now brought them back from Babylon. The prophet teaches that if they trust in God and worship Him faithfully, they will again have the spiritual wealth, prosperity and good fortune that they once had. Or, in other words, peace – "Shalom!"

The Responsorial Psalm is (66:1-7, 16, 20). Anyone who has come through a crisis, whether it is corporal or spiritual, will be able to identify with this prayer and make it their own, over and over. It is the prayer of someone who has experienced the love and peace of God through faith and trust and he or she will gratefully sing out the last lines of this psalm, "Hear now, all you who fear [trust in] God, while I declare what he has done for me."

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Galatians (6:14-18). Midway in Paul's mission to the Gentiles, he experienced opposition from a certain group of converts that insisted the Gentiles must be circumcised before they could be baptized into Christianity. This is only a brief portion of his long teaching on why it was not necessary to adhere to that Hebrew custom. Instead, all that was necessary was faith and trust in Jesus Christ and that "Peace that only Christ could give" would follow.

The Gospel Reading is from the Gospel of St. Luke (10:1-12). If you were told to go on a business trip or vacation without money, extra clothing or reservations, you would obviously decline with haste. But that is exactly what Jesus is asking of His disciples in this story. Of course, the times and social customs were different; but nevertheless, it required great trust in Jesus - and look at the results! The seventy-two returned rejoicing, but Jesus cautions them against bragging and commends them for their trust in Him.

I have often been asked, "What is the difference between Faith and Trust?" The only answer that is possible is "Action!" Faith is an interior belief or assurance, whereas Trust is the manifestation of that faith in action. Nevertheless, when exercised by the grace of the Holy Spirit, the result is a certain calmness that we can only describe as Peace. So, after reading the above, the question is: "Is your mind and heart truly at Peace? Shalom!"

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ADORATION CHAPEL

Bl. Carlo Acutis (1991-2006) will be our first millennial saint to be canonized on September 7th. He played video games, excelled athletically and academically, manifested contagious joy and wit even in suffering, and befriended all those he met. Carlo already hailed “the greatest saint of the century,” was a Thomas Aquinas in blue jeans. Carlo developed a plan of life on the day of his First Communion. Through his life, Carlo witnessed how to fall in love with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist and transmit the Faith spontaneously to others through daily Mass and Eucharistic Adoration. He evangelized the culture by “Rendering Eucharist” using modern media and personal witness.

The exhibitions that Carlo created along with his writings and counsels inspire souls to adore the Eucharist for the transformation of the world and live in “constant intimacy with Jesus.” Through the lens of his spiritual wisdom, you will discover how all of creation points to the Holy Eucharist and why the Real Presence is the source of all family life, evangelization, and holiness. The Blessed Sacrament fueled Bl. Carlo’s generosity to the poor, the sick, the suffering, the homeless, and those with special needs. This saint for our times was concerned about and offered prayers for the salvation of all.

When he died of leukemia at the age of 15, he told his mother, “I can die happy.”

DIVINE MERCY MEDITATION - REST ON MY HEART

In the evening, the Lord said to me,
My child, rest on My Heart; I see that you have worked hard in My vineyard. And my soul was flooded with divine joy (Diary, 945).

Today, the Lord visited me, pressed me to His Heart and said,
Rest, My little child. I am always with you (Diary, 1011).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response:

Saint Faustina, intercede for us and teach us how to rest on the Heart of Jesus.

We, too, need to be flooded with joy and hear the promise of Jesus:

I am always with you! (see Mt 28:20). Amen.

PRO-LIFE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

Even though Roe v Wade is no longer a federal law, we still face abortions every day. However, due to the individual states deciding their own abortion regulations, abortions have thankfully decreased somewhat. We must continue to work and pray diligently to end abortion in our nation and save God’s beautiful unborn babies. It is our hope that these quotes will inspire you to share them and to join pro-life. Continue to pray to end abortion.

Think about this:

“The first priority, the fundamental priority of the common good is protecting and supporting human life, for without life, there is no common good.”

~Bishop Arthur J. Serratelli.

How can our Declaration state that all have the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness when the state sponsors the killing of the unborn?

Lord, let us not be cowards; give us the courage & wisdom necessary to stand up & fight the evil of abortion & euthanasia today. Amen!
