MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

The Readings for today pick up again the theme of the "Coming of the King..." but in a way that asks us to examine our hearts to see if we are really getting ready to receive Him.

In the First Reading from the Prophet Isaiah (7:10-14), we have the familiar story about the Prophet's confrontation with King Ahaz of Judah. (Circa 735-715 BC approximately) Judah is faced with an invasion by the Assyrians, and Ahaz believes that an alliance with Egypt is better than relying upon God and His promises to save Judah. In frustration, Isaiah gives Ahaz a "sign" that is so unusual it should have caused the king to take notice, but he refuses and plunges Judah into disaster. The essence of this story is that God's plan will triumph in spite of mankind's refusal to cooperate. This is also a veiled warning to us today to be careful about our relationships.

In the Responsorial Psalm (24:1-6), the psalmist spells out the conditions that God expects of us in presenting our worship to the King of all nations. Ascending the "mountain of the Lord" was the Jewish way of saying "Let us go to Jerusalem and its temple in order to worship the Lord of all creation." It fits into our reading for this day because it asks us to prepare ourselves for the coming of the "King of all nations" at Christmas time.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans (1:1-7). In this opening passage and greeting, Paul lays out the whole purpose of his and our call as Christians, and that is "called to belong to Jesus Christ" and "called to holiness and apostleship" so that he and we might spread the name of Jesus and by doing so, bring others to believe.

In the Gospel Reading from the Gospel of Matthew (1:18-24), we hear the familiar story of how Jesus came into this world "through a woman" in what appears to be a normal birth process. However, as we now know, the story is anything but "normal." It is the fulfillment of the promises made to David and to his successors, such as King Ahaz, and to all mankind, for He, Jesus, is the savior of the world. Without our belief and trust in this truth, we would still be in sin, and our faith would be worthless. (See 1Corinthians 15:17)

Advent is a time of soul-searching and preparing, of waiting and hoping, of examining our heart and actions to see if they conform to what God expects of us. Are you worshipping with all your heart, mind, body and soul? We are all called to holiness through our baptism and our worship of the King of kings. We cannot afford to wait another minute. Our preparation time is nearing the end.

Something to think about during your Prayer Time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ADORATION CHAPEL

Merry Christmas: O Come Let Us Adore Him, Our Eucharistic Savior

“The refrain of a classic Christmas carol includes the words, ‘O Come let us adore Him.’ Being able to enjoy Christ’s Real Presence, to adore Him both in the celebration of Mass and in the silence of Eucharistic Adoration outside of Mass is a grace for which we should be supremely grateful. In looking at the rhythms of Christmas and the rhythms of the Church’s Eucharistic Life, I am reminded of the winsome words I once saw on a holiday plaque: ‘The magic of Christmas is not in the presents, but in His Presence.’” ~Dr. Dan Osborn

St. Stephen, Deacon, Martyr, Patron of Deacons & Stonemasons (D. 35) -

Feast Day: December 26th

St. Stephen was one of the first deacons called to live a Eucharistic life and preach God’s word, “He, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked up intently to heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God and he said, ‘Behold, I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.’” (Acts 7:55-56)

DIVINE MERCY MEDITATION - KING OF MERCY

Write this: before I come as the Just Judge, I am coming first as the King of Mercy. Before the day of justice arrives, there will be given to people a sign in the heavens of this sort:

All light in the heavens will be extinguished, and there will be great darkness over the whole earth. Then the sign of the cross will be seen in the sky, and from the openings where the hands and the feet of the Savior were nailed will come forth great lights which will light up the earth for a period of time.

This will take place shortly before the last day (Diary, 83).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response:

Lord Jesus, come now as the King of Mercy. We so need Your mercy, Lord. May the sign of Your Cross draw all of mankind to Your merciful Love. May we desire Your mercy, ask for it, and receive it with thanksgiving. Amen.

PRO-LIFE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

Even though Roe v Wade is no longer a federal law, we still face abortions every day. However, due to the individual states deciding their own abortion regulations, abortions have thankfully decreased somewhat. We must continue to work and pray diligently to end abortion in our nation and save God’s beautiful unborn babies. It is our hope that these quotes will inspire you to share them and to join pro-life. Continue to pray to end abortion.

Think about this:

The mystery of the Incarnation reveals the specific value of the dignity of human life. God gave us this gift and sanctified it when the Son became man and was born of Mary. It is a gift that must be protected, from conception until natural death.

Lord, let us not be cowards; give us the courage & wisdom necessary to stand up & fight the evil of abortion & euthanasia today. Amen!

PASTOR'S CHRISTMAS MESSAGE

Today the world celebrates one of the most important Holy Days and Holidays of the year. For weeks, everyone has been looking forward to this day with all kinds of emotions ranging from high expectations to deep depression. Even our church is highly decorated, with more people attending than almost any other day; but rather than commenting on the individual readings for this great day, which everyone should already know, I would like to offer the following:

"Are you ready for Christmas?" is an often heard greeting these days and many of us will immediately think about the gifts we have forgotten to buy, or the cards we should have sent and didn't or the invitations that we had to turn down because of other conflicts; but are you really ready for the visit of the Christ Child?

Remember:

"C" is for Christ! Without Him there would be no reason to celebrate.

"H" is for Holy! Are we prepared to meet and greet the Holy One of God?

"R" is for Royalty! After all, He is the "King of kings and the Lord of Lords."

"I" is for Incarnation! God's becoming Man to show us the way back home.

"S" is for Savior! The gift He holds out to us is Eternal Salvation.

"T" is for Time! Have you taken the time to see what Gift Jesus wants from you?

"M" is for Mary! How could we celebrate a divine birth without a Holy Mother?

"A" is for Adoration! Taking time during this season to worship the Son of God.

"S" is for Sacred! Let's keep this day holy, sacred, and sane.

Remember, God's gift to you is your life, your very being. Your gift to Him is what you do with it.
Just something to think about during your prayer time this week!

Merry Christmas, Everyone! ~Rev. Edward J. Smith & Staff
