MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

The Readings for today take a turn away from some of the familiar stories and give us some background on the beginning of Jesus' teachings. Did you ever wonder why Jesus started His teachings, His public ministry, in the northern part of Israel? Jerusalem in the south was the most important city at that time. Why didn't He start there? Nazareth and Capernaum were small hill towns in the north. Even Nathaniel, one of Jesus' first disciples, said, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth? (See John 1:46) In ancient Israel, Nazareth was in the land of Zebulun and Capernaum was in the Land of Naphtali. These were major crossroads of trade at one time, and the area was full of people from all over the world. Even the Jews of that region were more cosmopolitan and open to new ideas than the people of southern Israel (in the area around Jerusalem). So, the readings for today tell us about being open to new ideas particularly when they come from the Holy Spirit.

In the First Reading, from the Prophet Isaiah (8:23-9:3), we hear how God, through the Prophet, chastised the territories of Zebulun and Naphtali for their wickedness in abandoning God in favor of riches from trade. At the same time, He promises that if they turn away from their evil ways He will again shine a "great light upon them" and "they will rejoice as at the time of the harvest." Unfortunately, this did not happen in their lifetime because they refused to open their hearts and minds to God. We might say that when Jesus lived in the region, He was "the light." Unfortunately, they didn't accept Him either.

The Responsorial Psalm (27:1-14) is a prayer of hope and trust in God and His ways. Left to ourselves we would surely end up as the people of Zebulun and Naphtali did, enslaved by the enemy. This is a prayer that we should all say frequently.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians (1:10-17). In this passage, Paul tells us that there are many people "out there" who seem to be intelligent or important in some way, and they demand our attention to follow them to riches and happiness. However, as John the Baptist does in today's readings and as St. Paul does in the "Second Reading," we should listen for the voice of God in Jesus Christ through scripture and the Holy Spirit. This is where the true "great light" will come from.

In the Gospel Reading, from the Gospel of Matthew (4:12-23), we hear how Jesus chose to begin His ministry by selecting men from the northern regions who were open to new ideas and discussions. The people of the south, around Jerusalem, were too set in their ways, grounded in the Law of Moses and controlled by the teachings of the Pharisees.

Are we also to set in our ways to be open to Christ's calling us to something new or different in our life? So often we hear good church-going people say: "I'm not getting anything out of Mass," or "I don't know why I go to church. It is so repetitious and boring." Perhaps it is because they forget that worshipping means giving your time, your attention and your life to God and then listening for Him to speak to your heart. That is when it becomes exciting, and that is when you will realize that you got "something out" of participating in the celebration of the Eucharist.

Just something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ADORATION CHAPEL

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES, BISHOP, DOCTOR, FRANCE, 1567-1622 - FEAST DAY: JANUARY 24TH

‘We might wonder what practical suggestions Saint Francis de Sales gives for approaching the sacramental love of God who approaches us first.

In his “Introduction to the Devout Life,” de Sales describes what he calls the ‘short method of meditation.’ “Within this method, he suggests two primary points of preparation: (1) place yourself in the presence of God, and (2) invoke God’s assistance through meditative prompts for Eucharistic Adoration.”

To place yourself in the presence of God: Remember that God is not only in the place where you are but also that He is present in a most particular manner in your heart and in the very center of your spirit. Use your imagination to represent to yourself the Savior in His Sacred Humanity as if He were near us just as we sometimes imagine a friend to be present. If the most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar is present, then Christ’s presence is Real and not purely imaginary.’

DIVINE MERCY MEDITATION - A WAY TO BEG

After Communion, I heard the voice saying, My daughter, look into the abyss of My mercy and give praise and glory to this mercy of Mine. Do it in this way: Gather all sinners from the entire world and immerse them in the abyss of My mercy. I want to give Myself to souls; I yearn for souls, My daughter. On the day of My feast, the Feast of Mercy, you will go through the whole world and bring fainting souls to the spring of My mercy. I shall heal and strengthen them (Diary, 206).

*The words of Jesus appear in boldface type

My Prayer Response:

Thank You, Lord Jesus, for teaching us a way to beg for Your mercy on souls. As the Church, we, Your Body, immerse them in the ocean of Your mercy — “baptizing” them in Your mercy. We plunge all fainting souls in the world into the abyss of Your mercy. Amen.

PRO-LIFE THOUGHT OF THE WEEK FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

The Pro-Life Corner started in 1985 & at that time we believed that soon the atrocity of abortion on demand would no longer exist in America. We were so very wrong.

The sad reality is babies are still dying from abortions every day in our nation.

Abortion is a popular & common form of birth control. Also the increased use of the “pill”, which is an abortifacient & causes thousands of abortions each day in America alone, is ending the lives of so many babies; the government sanctioned & taxpayer funding of Planned Parenthood is another part of this ongoing war on the unborn.

Think about this:

“He who passively accepts evil is as much involved in it as he who helps to perpetuate it.

He who accepts evil without protesting against it is really cooperating with it.”

~Martin Luther King, Jr. Abortion is evil.

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil & for an end to euthanasia & assisted suicide since they take so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged because strides have been made so we must keep on doing everything we can to help save lives.
