A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR PALM SUNDAY

How could the theme for today's Readings be anything other than the Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ? During the final week of Lent, we celebrate the very highs and lows of Jesus' earthly life; and there are several themes, but all of them might be summed up in one word, LOVE. "For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son that we might have life." (John 3:16) We must remember that Jesus did not come into this world just to be crucified; rather, He came to show us how much He and the Father love us, even enough to die for us. This is clearly shown in all of His teachings and actions.

In the Processional Reading, from the Gospel of Matthew (21:1-11), we hear the story of Jesus sending two disciples off to prepare for the Passover, their final meal together, and then we learn of His triumphal procession into Jerusalem where, a few days later, some of these same people will yell "Crucify Him!" In this reading we can tell that Jesus knew what was just ahead of Him, that with each step He comes closer to death. Still, He is willing to go through with it out of obedience to and love for His Father and for all mankind.

The First Reading is from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah (50:4-7). We hear from the Prophet who, like Jesus, was persecuted because the people of Israel did not like what he said. Here he is explaining how he forged ahead even under severe persecution. You might consider Isaiah as being an early version of Jesus who was thought by His own people to be a prophet and yet, they killed Him as they did all the prophets.

The Responsorial Psalm (22:8-24) begins with the words "My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?" These are the words that Jesus cries out on the cross; first because He is human and in anguish, but also because these words were written about Him 200 years before as a prediction of God's suffering servant, a role that Jesus is now fulfilling. The ending of this Psalm is a victory speech predicting the resurrection; thus Jesus could be saying, in so many words, "Today, this prophesy will be fulfilled in your sight."

The Second Reading, from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians (2:6-11), is a poetic summary of the role of Jesus Christ who sets aside His being the Son of God coming to earth and living and dying out of love for His Father and for all mankind, and the honor bestowed on Him for it.

The Gospel Reading is a three-part reading from the Gospel of Matthew (26:14-66). In it, we hear the familiar story of the Last Supper, the betrayal by Judas, the arrest and suffering of Jesus, and finally the crucifixion. Not until Easter Sunday do we hear of the third part of this great event. So listen carefully! Place yourself in the crowd scene. Are you one who is yelling, "Crucify Him" or, are you one who is quietly standing by silently saying, "Oh God, be merciful to me, a sinner?"

Thus begins the most solemn week of our liturgical year. Lent will be over soon and the great joy of Easter will be here. Will you be able to look back and say that your Lenten observance or resolution was successful, and that you can truly partake of the Joy of Easter? It's not too late. Begin now! Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM - 2 PM

St. Francis de Sales from his "Introduction to the Devout Life"

Suggestions to invoke God's assistance through meditative prompts for Eucharistic Adoration

"Knowing that it stands in God's presence, your soul prostrates itself before Him with the most profound reverence."
 "Implore God's grace in order to serve & adore Him properly in your meditation with some short ardent words such as: O God, cast me not out from Your Presence & Your Holy Spirit wake not from me. Let Your face shine upon Your servant. I will consider the wonders of your law. Give me discernment & I will keep it with my whole heart. I am Your servant; give me discernment."
 "It will also be helpful to invoke your guardian angel as well as the holy saints who had part in the mystery on which you meditate. By allowing St. Francis de Sales to guide us along the way of meditative prayer, we too will be able to develop a faith like his in the supernatural power of divine providence unleashed in the Eucharist. When we come up against another crisis in life, we can be confident that our Lord & Master, Jesus Christ, will lead us into still waters, even if it seems that He remains calmly asleep in the boat."

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE A GREAT INTERIOR CALM

I heard these words in my soul: Do not fear anything, I am with you. These matters are in My hands and I will bring them to fruition according to My mercy, for nothing can oppose My will (Diary, 573).

**The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response:

*Jesus, dearest Savior, thank You for repeating over and over again what I need to hear so often: Fear not; I am with you. And You add so tenderly: I love you.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"Reproductive rights' has long been a euphemism for destroying human life in the womb... A phrase that sounds like empowerment is really only code for the subjugation of preborn children."

~Lila Rose, founder and president of the pro-life group Live Action

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year.

We must not get discouraged!
