A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 4TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

The readings for today continue to express the wonders of the whole event of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus the Christ, the Son of God, our Redeemer. Have you gotten over that already? Hopefully, you are still thinking about those events that happened more than 2000 years ago but still amaze us even today – as they should; and we should not let them slip into the background of our daily lives because they are the source of eternal life. As St. Paul tells us, “If the Resurrection had not happened, we would still be in our sins and our faith would be worthless.” (See 1st Cor: 15:17)

The First Reading is from the Acts of the Apostles (2:14a, 36–41). St. Peter, now emboldened by the Holy Spirit and renewed by the forgiveness of Christ, stands before a crowd and explains the meaning of what they have done in crucifying their Messiah and what must now be done to gain forgiveness. That basic truth has not changed – even in our modern “tech” age: Forgiveness is available “to all those whomever the Lord our God will call.” Are you being called?

The Responsorial Psalm (23:1–6). This is the familiar Psalm that we call The Lord is My Shepherd from its opening line. Now you might wonder “why is this here, what has it got to do with the Resurrection?” Let me answer that by asking you a question: Have you ever wondered why God didn’t get angry with the Jews or the Romans who put Jesus to death? He could have slaughtered them all with one swoop, but didn’t. That is not His way. He leads them rather than forces them, and He will lead us if we follow His voice as He tells us in the Gospel Reading.

The Second Reading is from the First Letter of St. Peter (2:20-25). This passage might be a confirmation of my explanation of the use of the 23rd Psalm above. Jesus was divinely patient when suffering for the love of all mankind to be the instrument of salvation. This was His purpose and mission; and He fulfilled it in the manner He would like us to do when we are hit with suffering of any kind because, when we offer our sufferings to God in the form of patience, it is accepted as grace.

The Gospel Reading is from the Gospel of John (10:1-10). Here we have another strange reading within the Easter Time but it follows along with the theme of the 23rd Psalm. Here, Jesus is telling us that He is the sheep-gate and if we are to enter heaven, we must enter through Him. For those of you who might not be aware, shepherds of that time period would corral their sheep at night for protection and they would station themselves in the gateway to prevent wolves or thieves from entering. Thus, the shepherd would put himself at risk to protect his sheep. This is an act of love of the highest kind. We are being asked to look upon Jesus as our Divine Shepherd and to follow Him is to be led to eternal life.

So, the wonders of the Easter event continue, as they should, and we should remind ourselves daily that the Divine Shepherd is calling us to be His disciple, follower or servant. Are you listening for His voice? Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

A MESSAGE FROM FR. SMITH

I wanted to publicly take a moment to thank everyone who offered my mother & me their prayerful support, encouragement, & help after the death of my father. I would especially like to thank everyone who attended the wake, funeral Mass, & helped with the bereavement luncheon. So many parishioners & staff members of both St. Anthony of Padua Parish & St. Teresa of Avila Parish came together to make a difficult day a joyful celebration of my father’s life. In addition, I am very grateful to everyone who has made a generous donation in his memory for Masses. The prayerful support of so many of you has been a tremendous consolation to my family. My sincerest gratitude goes out to every one of you. May God Bless You, Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM - 2 PM

"Jesus defined the greatest love among humans as the one that gives its life for its friends. The Eucharist is a much greater love, infinitely greater than the greatest human love. The Eucharist is giving life for both friends & enemies, not just once, but countless times. My Master, Jesus, may I extend Your definition of the greatest love? You said, 'Greater love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends,' except for the one who has instituted the Eucharist to give His life every day & every hour for His enemies until the end of time. Indeed, this is the greatest gift love perpetuated in madness." ~What the Heart of Jesus Does and Says in the Tabernacle, St. Manuel González García

St. Catherine of Siena, Virgin, Doctor of the Church, Patroness of Italy (1347-1380) - Feast Day: April 29th

"Now, especially in the Eucharist, the Lord bathes us in the Blood that He shed for us on the Cross. How often Catherine herself experienced the power of this Blood to heal our wounds & turn our hearts to Him. She urges us to experience for ourselves how tenderly the Lord in the Eucharist gives us His Precious Blood to comfort & strengthen us. By His Blood, He protects & helps us & deepens our trust that absolutely everything that He permits for us is for our true good." ~The Wonders of Mass and the Eucharist, Sr. Mary Ann Fatula, OP

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE MY INCONCEIVABLE MERCY

Jesus said to me with kindness, My daughter, speak to priests about this inconceivable mercy of Mine. The flames of mercy are burning Me — clamoring to be spent; I want to keep pouring them out upon souls; souls just don't want to believe in My goodness (Diary, 177).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response: Lord Jesus, give priests a special grace to hear the word of Your inconceivable mercy and to proclaim it to people in need. May distrustful souls come to believe in Your goodness as they hear it proclaimed.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"Before we go looking for life on other planets, can we stop killing life on this one?" ..."Why would bacteria be considered life on Mars and a heartbeat not be considered life on Earth?" – Unknown

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year.

We must not get discouraged!

ST. ANTHONY SCHOOL NEWS

MARCH WAS JOYFUL & ENGAGING!

We celebrated Read Across America Week with fun Dr. Seuss activities, including schoolwide buddy reading that brought older & younger students together to share their love of books. Our Grades 3/4 & 5/6 spelling bees were also held, & we are proud that the winners will go on to represent our school at their respective Lorain County spelling bees later this month. Families joined us for our annual Bunny Breakfast & Easter egg hunt, a cherished tradition filled with food, fun, & fellowship. We also recognized our students during the Quarter 3 Academic & Virtue Awards, highlighting those who exemplified the virtue of temperance.
