A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 14TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever had, or do you now have, someone with whom you can just be yourself? Perhaps that someone is a spouse, friend or close relative who is comforting because of the honesty and sincerity that exists between the two of you. To be there with you when needed gives one peace and rest. The readings for today tell us that Jesus Himself wants to be that person for you. He tells us to "Come to me ... and I will refresh you." All the readings reflect this theme.

In the First Reading, from the Prophet Zechariah (9:9-10), we hear the prophet exhorting the people of Israel to turn back to the Lord with sincerity of heart and He will accept them into His presence. He will come, not as a conquering warrior, but as a "Prince of Peace," and not as the evil kings of the monarchy who rode horses and chariots, but he will come on a lowly beast of burden. The latter is a reference to His entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday.

The Responsorial Psalm (145:1-14) is a song of praise and thanksgiving for the goodness and benevolence of God. The psalmist exhorts us to put our trust in the Lord and not in the foolishness of this world. The last two lines of this portion of the Psalm are repeated in many songs and prayers. They should give us comfort because they tell us of a loving God.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans (8:9-13). This passage is an excerpt from Paul's longer teaching on the "the flesh versus the spirit." He is saying that we, as committed Christians, are living in the spirit and not in the flesh such as a glove is moved by the hand within it. The important point is that those of us who are committed to Jesus Christ and are living according to His teachings need not worry about the things of this world because we have the Spirit of Christ (the Holy Spirit) dwelling within us, giving us that special peace. However, for those who only say or think they are Christians but live otherwise, these do not have the Spirit of Christ within them; and they "do not belong to Christ." Remember, "Belonging to Christ" means more than just "going to church" on Sundays.

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (11:25-30). This passage is one of the most comforting in all the gospels. Here Jesus invites us to go to Him to be refreshed. When we hear of all the troubles of the world today, it is comforting to know that there is someone we can go to who will refresh us and help us to deal with the trials of daily life. If you think this is just "pious talk," be brave enough to try it. Search out a quiet, private spot and just sit and ask Jesus to come to you in spirit. It might take a while, but surely His comforting peace will enfold you. If you continue, you will feel the anxiety leaving your body and soul. This, then is the time to talk to Him as if He were your divine counselor, your closest friend, because that is what He is, or wants to be for you. The Father has given Jesus all the power in the world to do this, so why don't you take advantage of it?

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

INDEPENDENCE DAY PRAYER

O God, you will that all people should be free to worship you without fear & to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found you. Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank you daily for our freedom, & work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly & proudly. We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, & ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear & bondage. We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin & death through the wood of the cross. Amen.

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

St. Pier Giorgio, Patron of World Youth Days, Italy (1901-1925) – Feast Day: July 4th.

"The Eucharistic Christ was his sovereign Lord, whom he never ceased to adore," wrote Luciana Frassati, Pier Giorgio Frassati's sister of her brother who spent many hours adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament & encouraging others to adore Him.

St. Pier was devoted to the Holy Rosary & Catholic Action. He led a life of the beatitudes serving the poor & sick with a pure & generous heart. He was a popular youth who loved mountain climbing & encouraged his friends to be holy. He is popular for the phrase 'Verso L'Alto,' To the heights. St. Pier Giorgio wrote: "When you are totally consumed by the Eucharistic fire, then you will be able more consciously to thank God who has called you to become part of his family. Then you will enjoy the peace that those who are happy in this world have never experienced because true happiness, oh young people, does not consist in the pleasures of this world or in earthly things, but in peace of conscience which we only have if we are pure of heart and mind." "I urge you with all the strength of my soul to approach the Eucharistic Table as often as possible. Feed on this Bread of the Angels from which you will draw the strength to fight inner struggles, the struggles against passions and eternal life and the necessary graces to obtain it."

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE

HEART OF MY HEART

Today, the Lord said to me, My daughter, look into My Merciful Heart and reflect its compassion in your own heart and in your deeds, so that you, who proclaim My mercy to the world, may yourself be aflame with it (Diary, 1688). The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:
Lord Jesus, as I gaze into Your Merciful Heart, may I reflect Your mercy in my heart and radiate it out to others. May my life be aflame with Your mercy. Amen.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE

FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"To claim the right to abortion, infanticide, & euthanasia, & to recognize that right in law, means to attribute to human freedom a perverse & evil significance...The right to life is the most basic & fundamental right that is & must be protected." ~St. John Paul II

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION

JULY 2026 - RESPECT FOR HUMAN LIFE

Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God. Amen.
