THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

"I am the living bread
that came down from heaven; whoever eats
this bread will live
forever; and the bread
that I will give is my flesh
for the life of the world."

A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR CORPUS CHRISTI

Today the Church celebrates the Feast of the Body & Blood of Christ, which, in years past, was known by its Latin name Corpus Christi. It is fitting that we should celebrate this divine gift to mankind right after the Easter Season because it was as a result of the events of the first Easter that Jesus gave us something to remember Him by. However, "Do this in remembrance of me" means more than an occasional mental recognition of this great gift. It is recognizing that the Body & Blood of Christ is the sustaining food for our souls on our journey through life. Let us see how the Readings support this.

In the First Reading from the Book of Deuteronomy (8:2-3, 14-16), we hear the voice of Moses reminding the Israelites of how God provided for them in a "howling desert" during a testing period to see if they would remain faithful to Him. God gave them "food from heaven" called manna; but at the same time, Moses admonishes them to remember that there are things more important than food for the body. Faith & obedience will get us further than a loaf of bread!

In the Responsorial Psalm (147:12-20), we hear the psalmist praising God for His many gifts & benevolence to the Israelites throughout a long period of Salvation History. We are also the beneficiaries of these same gifts, but through the death & resurrection of Jesus Christ these gifts continue to nourish us in a spiritual way that will last forever, if we understand & accept them as gifts to sustain the spiritual life within us.

In the Second Reading from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians (10:16-17), we hear Paul preaching to his congregation that when we partake of the Body & Blood of Christ we become as family. If we believe that what we are doing is following the command of Christ at the Last supper, then doesn't that make us spiritually related? When we come together to enjoy the American Thanksgiving Day Dinner, we don't come just to eat turkey. We come to enjoy the fellowship of family & friends that bring us closer together. Our receiving of the Body & Blood of Christ at Mass should also bring the congregation closer together where we would not think of leaving before the Mass is over. Would you leave the Thanksgiving Day table before the dinner was over? If you did, think of how your host or hostess would feel!

In the Gospel Reading from the Gospel of John (6:51-58), we hear Jesus tell His apostles & us, emphatically, that the bread & wine consecrated at Catholic Mass is the same Body & Blood that hung on the cross for us. It is also the food for our souls & without it our souls would die. Unlike the bread that Moses gave his followers in the desert, Jesus gives us something far greater. This divine bread will sustain us on our journey back to the Father.

Many people come to Mass every Sunday & receive the Body & Blood of Christ, Corpus Christi, but do they really understand what they are receiving? St. Paul tells us to take this seriously, that to receive this great gift unworthily could lead to condemnation (See 1 Cor. 11:27-29). However, let us look on the brighter side. Coming closer to Jesus Christ, the fountain of love, should make us spiritually fulfilled and happy. Do you take Communion seriously? Are you spiritually happy & at peace? Give it some thought during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

"The Bread of Life will help the body as well as the soul if we but touch the hem of His garment... and how much more have we than that. We can find Him at every moment on the altar. Be with him there. Better than all books. Thank the Trinity over & over again for this Gift. Rest in His Presence." ~Ven. Edel Quinn, Legion of Mary

"Jesus, truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament, body & blood, soul & divinity... the Holy Eucharist, the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, Holy Communion, Eucharist as the source & summit of Christian life. Theologically, we have the words to help express what we believe as Catholics that Jesus is truly present in the bread & wine once consecrated by the priest. Having words to articulate our beliefs is especially important for our own understanding & when we are trying to share with others, believers & non-believers alike. Yet, when I think about falling in love with the Eucharist, Jesus, it is experiences I have at adoration or receiving the Eucharist at Mass. It is an experience of my heart beating with the Heart of the Eucharist. It is an experience of an overwhelming sense of His Presence, His peace. It is a yearning or drawing that quickens my feet to go to the chapel or nearby church. It is knowing that what I believe is true. Jesus is truly present with us in the Eucharist. One cannot give these experiences to others to help them move from unbelief to belief or intellectual understanding to reality, but one can live it." ~Abiding in the Heart of Christ... in the Eucharist by Sister Mary John, O.C.D.

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE STIR UP A LIVING FAITH

I am the same under each of the species, but not every soul receives Me with the same living faith as you do, My daughter, and therefore I cannot act in their souls as I do in yours (Diary, 1407).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:

Lord Jesus, stir up a living faith in me, so You are free to act in my soul as You desire. I want You to be free to act in my soul as You did in St. Faustina's.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"The commandment 'Thou shalt not kill' has absolute value when it refers to the innocent person. And all the more so in the case of weak & defenseless human beings, God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can, in any circumstance, claim for himself the right to destroy directly an innocent human being."

~St. John Paul II

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year.

We must not get discouraged!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION JUNE 2026 - THE VALUES OF SPORTS
