A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 17TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

The theme of today's readings is the Kingdom of God. This "Kingdom" is none other than being in the presence of God Himself, spiritually speaking, of course. However, if Jesus were to preach or teach about it in that way, the people of His time would have had more difficulty understanding it than we do today. So, Jesus used parables, brief sketches of daily life, or symbols, things that people of any era could identify with. What are we to learn when listening to these readings? Where is the Kingdom in our life today? For us, this kingdom begins by finding out what gifts God has given us, or by asking for some special gift from God for the benefit of others, as well as ourselves, and then using them for His honor and glory.

In the First Reading, from the First Book of Kings (3:5-12), we hear how King Solomon inherits the throne of his father, David, at a very young age. This is an awesome task, and Solomon knows he is not mature enough to fulfill it properly. God offers divine help but disguises it within an offer of anything that Solomon might want. Solomon asks for wisdom and knowledge to enable him to serve God and His people as God would want him to. When we fulfill our duties as God would want us to do, we are then in His presence and on the threshold of the Kingdom.

The Responsorial Psalm (119) picks up the theme of the joy that comes from obedience to the will of God and fulfilling our role in His Plan of Salvation. This "Plan" is God's desire to bring everyone back to the "kingdom," but He will not force us. We must choose to be with God and want to be heading toward the Kingdom.

In the Second Reading, from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans (8:28-30), we hear one of Paul's strange statements; but his insight into the ways of the Kingdom was far better than ours, so we must dig a little to find out what he means. The "all things work together, etc." is straightforward, and means that regardless of how confusing or difficult daily life might get, if we are following in the footsteps of Christ then they will head us to the Kingdom of the Father. The second part says that all mankind is destined for heaven. This is not predestination, as some people believe. It means that God's original intention (and still existing desire) is for all mankind to be with Him in heaven; but only those who fulfill what is asked of them will reach the throne of God.

The Gospel Reading from Matthew (13:44-46) continues the same theme from last Sunday's readings, but with a twist. Jesus uses simple examples from daily life to describe the "Kingdom of Heaven" (or the Kingdom of God, which are the same) such as buried treasure, a fine pearl (and from other gospel passages), we can add, yeast, seeds and weeds, etc. (all things that grow), are imbedded, hard to find, yet have value and are worthy of our efforts. These are symbols of the faith given to us at baptism, but we must nourish and use our faith, because as Jesus says, "At the last judgment, the angels will separate those who fulfilled their role from those who did not."

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

St. Carlo Acutis, Apostle of the Eucharist, Patron of the Internet, Italy (1991-2006)

St. Carlo is known as God's Influencer due to his use of the media to lead souls to Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. St. Carlo wrote and spoke often of the Holy Eucharist and the exhibit of Eucharistic Miracles that he created continues to tour worldwide. St. Carlo said of the Holy Eucharist: "The Lord looks at me and I look at Him. His gazing enriches me. I let the Lord observe me, dig into me, so He can form my soul. That He might shape me. He is truly present. It is not an invention. He is there. If only everyone could realize this, they would run to Him. If people would believe in this truth, how it would change their lives."

"From the Most Holy Sacrament present in the tabernacle irradiates the healing love that only God knows how to produce and we unite with the Church triumphant in paradise that is at that moment gathered prostrate before the Lamb of God to implore grace and blessing for the entire Church. Jesus is present in the tabernacle in that attitude of adoration of the Father, and He wants to draw all men into that same attitude. Jesus wants to teach us to adore the Father as well. In the presence of the Eucharist, we, too, ought to have this attitude of reverence." St. Carlo Acutis spent an hour in Adoration every day from when he was eight until fifteen.

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE THE WORK OF REDEMPTION

Listen, My daughter, although all the works that come into being by My will are exposed to great sufferings, consider whether any of them has been subject to greater difficulties than that work which is directly Mine — the work of Redemption. You should not worry too much about adversities. The world is not as powerful as it seems to be; its strength is strictly limited (Diary, 1643).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:

Lord Jesus, may I not worry and lose my peace when I face difficulties in promoting Your mercy to souls in need. May I be inspired in the struggle by the words of the Great Mercy Pope: "The ultimate limit to evil is Divine Mercy" (see Pope John Paul II, Memory and Identity, p. 55).

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

We cannot build a just society if we discard the weakest —whether the child in the womb or the elderly in their frailty—for they are both gifts from God.

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION JULY 2026 - RESPECT FOR HUMAN LIFE

Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God. Amen.
