A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 19TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

In the past few weeks, the Readings used various symbols to illustrate the meaning and power of the Word of God such as mustard seed, yeast in flour, a pearl, etcetera...all things that are partially hidden and take time to be discovered, evaluated and appreciated. In the Readings for today, God reveals Himself in ways that mankind would never have thought of. Together they ask us a question: "Who is God to you?" or "Where do you find God in your life?"

In the First Reading, from the First Book of Kings (19:9-13), we learn that the Prophet Elijah is running away from his homeland because he fears for his life. He is discouraged to the point of wanting to die. God calls on him to remember his mission. He feeds Elijah with earthly food and then stations him outside a cave to reveal Himself to the prophet. A gale-size wind develops, but God is not in the wind. Next is an earthquake, but God is not there either. Then fire nearly consumes the mountain, but God is not there. These natural phenomena are all traditional signs of God from the past, but no longer. Next Elijah is engulfed in silence, and it is here that the prophet hears God who leads him to safety. Do you ever spend time in silence to hear God?

The Responsorial Psalm (85:9-14) tells us that we must "listen" to what the Lord wants to say to us. We often make the mistake of "talking" too much in our prayers and listening too little. God will reveal Himself if we are willing to spend the time in faith listening for His voice which can come at any time or place and in any form. In other words, we must learn to listen with our heart.

In the Second Reading, from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans (9:1-5), we hear Paul lamenting with great sorrow the stubbornness of the Jewish people who would not accept his teaching about Jesus even though Paul related Jesus' teaching to the great things the Father did for them. If St. Paul were here in our country today, he would probably feel the same way because many people who call themselves Christian do not listen and do not understand the teachings of Jesus Christ, and yet they do nothing about it. How sad! Christ reveals Himself to those who earnestly search for Him.

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (14:22-33). This passage follows immediately after the one for the previous Sunday. It is the story of Jesus walking on the water, and Peter asks if he can do the same. Peter was looking only at the spectacle of the miracle and not the miracle-worker, Jesus. Many times, Jesus revealed His divine nature to the apostles to substantiate who He is. This was necessary because much would be expected of the apostles in the near future. We have the benefit of knowing all that God did for His people, the Jews, and through Jesus, the Christians; but do we really know who God is? We can read the Bible from cover to cover, as some people do, and still not know who God is or His divine Son, Jesus. A true understanding of God in Jesus Christ can only come to us through faith, which is planted in everyone in the Sacrament of Baptism; but it is up to us to nourish and develop this gift through the Eucharist, prayer, study and listening.

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL

OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

St. Dominic, Founder of the Order of Preachers, Defender of Faith, Spain (1170-1221) - Feast Day: August 8th

"Saint Dominic was once saying Mass in London, England in the presence of the King and Queen and three hundred other persons. As he was making the memento for the living, he suddenly became enraptured remaining motionless for the space of a whole hour. All present were greatly astonished and did not know what to think or to make of it. The King ordered the server to pull the priest's robe that he might go on with his Mass. But on attempting to do so, the server became so terribly frightened that he was unable to comply with the King's order. After an hour's time, Saint Dominic was able to continue the Mass when behold at the elevation of the Sacred Host, the King and all who were present saw, instead of the Host in the hands of the priest, the holy Infant Jesus at the sight of which all experienced great interior joy. At the same time they beheld the Mother of God in great brilliancy and splendor and surrounded by twelve bright stars. She took the hand of her Divine Infant to bless with it all those who were present at the Mass."

~Our Greatest Treasure, Fr. Michael Muller

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE YOU ARE IN MY HEART

During prayer, I heard these words: My daughter, let your heart be filled with joy. I, the Lord, am with you. Fear nothing. You are in My heart. At that moment, I knew the great majesty of God, and I understood that nothing could be compared with one single perception of God. Outward greatness dwindles like a speck of dust before one act of a deeper knowledge of God (Diary, 1133).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:

Lord Jesus, I welcome You into my heart. May my heart be a consolation to You today as You fill me with Your joy. Amen.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM
