A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 25TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever wondered why some people "get all the breaks" and others seem to have bad luck all their life? In biblical times, those who were rich or prosperous were believed to be favored by God. Those who were poor or ill or in some way disabled were automatically, but unjustifiably, considered being sinners punished by God. On the other hand, there are countless stories where God is overwhelmingly generous with many; but such stories don't seem to get much recognition. The readings for today give us a good example of God's divine generosity.

The First Reading is from the Prophet Isaiah (55:6-9). Here we have the prophet preaching to his congregation the virtues and generosity of God, citing: "God's ways are not like mankind's ways." We should be thankful for that and remember it when we feel that we are being treated unfairly, and then ask ourselves, "What is going on here? Why is God treating me this way?"

The Responsorial Psalm (145:2-18) is a prayer in which the psalmist praises God for His goodness, compassion and generosity. However, with God there is always some qualification in His instructions or offerings. In this case it is "...to all who call upon Him in truth." We can't ignore Him for most of our life and then expect Him to answer our needs when we call.

The Second Reading is from Paul's Letter to the Philippians (1:20-27). "Philippians" is all about humility. In this passage, Paul is saying that he is so grateful to Jesus Christ for bringing him to this stage of his life that it makes no difference if he, Paul, is dead or alive. To Paul each has its merits, and so he gives his body, his very life to Christ in thanksgiving; and he asks that we do the same. Wow! That's a tall request, but it is truly worth the effort.

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (20:1-16). In this passage, Jesus is giving us a lesson on what the kingdom of heaven is like. When the Bible uses the word "like" it does not mean "the same as." So, we must look for a similarity or likeness. In this story, the similarity is the landowner who is somewhat like God the Father. God can be as generous as He wishes to those He loves and even to those who He might not totally approve of. This might be the way He is working with someone to bring them around to His way of thinking. So, we must not look with longing at someone who is rich or powerful or good looking. Who knows, behind the façade there could be all kinds of problems. If we have needs, either spiritual or temporal we should call upon our generous Lord and God for mercy and help, but we should also see to it that our spiritual house is in order. Then, let the "chips fall where they may."

Just something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

Our Lady of Sorrows: "Behold your Mother" (Jn 19:27) - Feast Day: September 15th

Our Lady, Mother of Sorrows, pray for Priests, your special sons.

Strengthen their faith & love of Jesus in the Most Blessed Sacrament, so that they may turn to Him for the grace they need to live a life faithful to their calling. Bring comfort, consolation & courage to those who are suffering under the weight of the Cross. Give them the love of your Son & zeal for the honor & glory of God & the salvation of souls. Amen.

St. Pio of Pietrelcina, Franciscan Priest, Stigmatist, Mystic; Italy (1887-1968) - Feast Day: September 23rd

St. Pio is referred to as the patron of Eucharistic adorers. Countless miracles & healings are granted through his intercession.

"Kneel down & render the tribute of your presence & devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Confide all your needs to Him along with those of others. Speak to Him with filial abandonment, give free rein to your heart, & give Him complete freedom to work in you as He thinks best." (St. Pio prayer card)

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE GOD'S MERCY TIME & AGAIN

As I was meditating on the sin of the Angels and their immediate punishment, I asked Jesus why the Angels had been punished as soon as they had sinned. I heard a voice: Because of their profound knowledge of God. No person on earth, even though a great saint, has such knowledge of God as an Angel has. Nevertheless, to me who am so miserable, You have shown Your mercy, O God, and this, time and time again. You carry me in the bosom of Your mercy and forgive me every time that I ask Your forgiveness with a contrite heart (Diary, 1332).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:

Lord Jesus, please help me to know You and Your greatest attribute, Your mercy. Help me to tell Your people of Your compassion and love. As I do, also give me courage to ask Your forgiveness whenever I sin. Amen.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"Abortion kills twice. It kills the body of the baby and it kills the conscience of the mother. Abortion is profoundly anti-women. Three quarters of its victims are women: Half the babies and all the mothers." ~Mother Teresa

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION SEPT 2026 - FOR THE CARE OF WATER

Let us pray for a just & sustainable management of water, a vital resource, so that everyone may have equal access to it.
