A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

26TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

Have you ever held a belief despite it being contrary to the truth? Or perhaps you or someone you know has said, "I don't believe that; the Church says one thing, but I don't accept that; I believe differently." Holding onto a belief or practice which is contrary to what legitimate authority teaches or declares is an indication of stubbornness or lack of humility. This is brought out clearly in the Readings for today where the theme is humility of the will and spirit.

The First Reading is from the Prophet Ezekiel (18:25-28). In this passage, the Prophet is restating what he has been told by God to tell the Israelites of the 6th century BC. At that time, the Jewish monarchy was disintegrating because it refused to be faithful and obedient to God. They worshipped false gods and followed all kinds of practices that were contrary to the Commandments. Yet, God was willing to forgive them if they turned away from their evil ways.

The Responsorial Psalm (25:4-14) is a prayer in which the psalmist and all of us ask God to guide us in His ways so that we might not fall into the trap of sin. It is not easy to do this because it might cause us to give in to God's ways; but if we do, verse 9 tells us, "He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble His ways." We can't go wrong by following Him.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians (2:1-11). As we said last week, "Philippians" is all about humility. In this week's passage, Paul is asking each of his followers (and us) to be humble enough to "look out for the health and welfare of others before ourselves." He then goes on to give us Jesus as the supreme example of humility. The beautiful poem that follows tells us how Jesus set aside being God to come to earth as man to teach us the "ways of God," and of the glory that will follow if we do. This poem is also the basis for the Church's dogma of Jesus' dual nature, being both true God and true Man (Hypostatic Union).

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (21:28-32). In this passage, Jesus is giving us a lesson on "change of heart." This story is somewhat like the story of the "Prodigal Son." Here we have two sons being asked by their father to do something for him that was within their capability and responsibility. The first son refuses but then changes his mind and obeys. The other agrees to fulfill the command but doesn't. Fidelity and obedience to the Father are at stake here, and Jesus is accusing the Chief Priests and Elders of being worse than prostitutes and tax collectors who will be forgiven because they have given up their sinful ways. The Chief Priests and Elders, however, will not be forgiven because they were stubborn and lacking in humility in refusing to accept the teachings of Jesus even though they knew better.

It is human nature to want to hold on to beliefs that we hold important; but when faced with an opposing viewpoint, we should, for our own good, be willing to exam it and compare it to what has been our accepted belief. In doing so, we might find out more about ourselves than we thought possible.

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL

OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

St. Vincent de Paul (1581-1660) Priest, Servant; France - Feast Day: September 27th

Summary of reflection: Pope Benedict XVI highlighted how saints draw the strength for active, heroic charity directly from the Eucharist. St. Vincent de Paul expressed the deep joy found in serving Christ through serving those in need.

Feast of Archangels Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Saints - Feast Day: September 29th

Summary of reflection: St. John Chrysostom described how during the celebration of Mass, the sanctuary is filled with innumerable angels adoring the Divine Sacrifice on the altar. These heavenly messengers continually intercede for us while beholding God in perpetual adoration.

St. Jerome, Priest and Doctor, Patron of Librarians; Dalmatia (c. 340 - d. 420) - Feast Day: September 30th

Summary of reflection by St. Jerome: Just as Christ did not want to send the crowd away hungry in the desert lest they collapse, He teaches us that attempting the journey to heaven without the Eucharistic Bread of Heaven poses great danger to our spiritual life.

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE

THE TREASURE OF GRACE

Today I saw the Crucified Lord Jesus. Precious pearls and diamonds were pouring forth from the wound in His Heart. I saw how a multitude of souls was gathering these gifts, but there was one soul who was closest to His Heart and she, knowing the greatness of these gifts, was gathering them with liberality, not only for herself, but for others as well. The Savior said to me, Behold, the treasures of grace that flow down upon souls, but not all souls know how to take advantage of My generosity (Diary, 1687).

_The words of Jesus appear in boldface type_

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:

Thank You, Jesus, for teaching us through St. Faustina that Your graces flow like "precious pearls and diamonds" from the wound in Your Heart. Teach us how to take advantage of Your generosity and gather Your graces for ourselves and for others. Amen.
