A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 23RD SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

The theme of the Readings for today is somewhat like a two-sided coin; on one side we have "Error and Condemnation," and on the other side we have "Forgiveness and Reconciliation." Now you might think, or say, "Oh, we've heard all of that before. Let's move on." But have you heard of the most dangerous prayer? This dangerous prayer can often be the difference between one side of the coin and the other. Let us look at the readings to hear what they have to say and then I will come back to our subject of a dangerous prayer.

In the First Reading, from the Prophet Ezekiel (33:7-9), we hear God speaking to the prophet (and to us) about the prophet's responsibility and just how far this goes. In essence, the prophet is told that if he is given an order to instruct or warn a person or people of an infraction of the law and he doesn't do it, then those who break the law are not responsible...the prophet is. On the other hand, if after warning or instructing the people they continue to break the law, they are held responsible, and the prophet is given credit for doing his duty.

The Responsorial Psalm (95:1-9) is a prayer more in the form of a proverb that says we must praise our God for His goodness and benevolence; but if we don't, there can be serious consequences. Therefore, be forewarned; don't take God for granted.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Romans (13:8-10). In the two readings above, we have the negative side of the "coin." Here, in Paul's letter, we have the positive side, his teaching on "love of neighbor." At the end, he sums up the essence of this teaching: "Love is the fulfillment of the Law." (Love of God and love of neighbor.)

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (18:15-20). In this passage, we have Jesus giving instructions to the Church through the apostles. It is very much like the instruction that God gave Ezekiel in the First Reading. Although the language might be strange, it means that God is willing to forgive anyone and everyone who repents, but under certain conditions or format; and that format is the Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession) — for serious matters (mortal sins). We must remember that God is a loving God who is willing to forgive, but He has rules and formats that are for our good. The passage tells us that God, through Jesus Christ, gave the Church the authority to forgive sins of those who repent. The outward sign of our sincerity and repentance is our "going" to confession. The outward sign of God's forgiveness is the absolution given to us by God, through the validly ordained Priest. The last part of the gospel reading is about prayer, which brings us back to my comment about the most dangerous prayer. Do you know what that prayer is? How often do you say amidst your prayers, "... and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." God is always ready to forgive us, but do you really want Him to forgive us ONLY as much as we forgive someone else in our life? Be careful what you pray for. You might get ONLY that much in return.

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

Birth of the Blessed Virgin Mary - Sept. 8

Summary of reflection by St. Bernard: Humanity is given a new Eve, one defined by humility & prudence rather than pride. In contrast to bringing forth the fruit of bitterness & death, she offers the Bread of Life & the fruit of immortality. Instead of self-excuse, we are called to praise & thanksgiving, recognizing that through her, God has granted life that is sweeter than honey. This fulfills the purpose for which the Angel was sent to the Virgin, who is worthy of all honor & admiration. ~Saint Bernard

St. Teresa of Calcutta, Religious Founder, Patron of the Gutters & World Youth Day; Albania (1910-1997) - Feast Day: Sept. 5

Summary of reflection by St. Teresa of Calcutta: Believing in & recognizing Jesus under the appearance of bread on the altar is essential to recognizing Him in the poor & suffering. Spending a holy hour before the Eucharist must naturally lead to a holy hour spent with the poor & those who lack worldly accomplishments, so that Jesus remains their ultimate consolation. ~

St. Teresa of Calcutta, Foundress of the Missionaries of Charity)

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE ONLY A SCREEN

Today, the Lord has been teaching me, once again, how I am to approach the Sacrament of Penance: My daughter, just as you prepare in My presence, so also you make your confession before Me. The person of the priest is, for Me, only a screen. Never analyze what sort of a priest it is that I am making use of; open your soul in confession as you would to Me, and I will fill it with My light (Diary, 1725).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:

Thank You, Lord, for teaching St. Faustina how to make her confession before You. Help me to remember that the priest is only a screen. May I, too, make my confession before You, opening my soul to You that You may fill it with Your light. Amen.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE

FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"Some people argue that changing laws will not eliminate abortions. It is certainly true that a change of heart is more important than a change of law. What is forgotten, however, is that the law is the great teacher. Children grow up believing that if a practice is legal, it must be moral."

~John Cardinal O'Connor

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged!
