A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR ALL SAINTS DAY

Today the Church honors all the saints; those that we know, and those that we don't know. Remember, everyone in heaven is a "saint." The word saint means "holy one," or one set apart who has reached the degree of holiness to be with God. You may recall the phrase in other scripture readings where God says, "Be holy for (or because) I am holy." Now, most of us might say, "Wow, how can anyone be as holy as God?" The answer to that is: we can't on our own, but God is there to help us if we are willing to bend our ways and heart to His way. Because God is divinely perfect, He cannot abide or live with anyone who is not perfect. Therefore, everyone who is in heaven has been made perfect by the grace of God and a period of purgation.

The First Reading is from the Book of Revelation (7:2-4, 9-14). The first part of this passage talks about the people in heaven being "signed" with a seal. This seal is the commitment of the Sacrament of Baptism. The Sacrament of Baptism is more than a little sprinkling of water followed by a big party. It is a serious commitment to follow Jesus Christ in His teachings and His Church. When we do this we are assured of being among the large group mentioned in the second part of the passage.

The Responsorial Psalm is (24:1-6). This Psalm is a song sung by people entering heaven. It is a reminder of what they left behind, and what they are now about to encounter in Heaven – the "mountain of the Lord" is an ancient Jewish expression for being with God in Heaven. Verse 4 of this Psalm is the ultimate detail, or requirement, for entrance to heaven. We would do well to review this Psalm and to see if we are measuring up to its requirements.

The Second Reading is from the First Letter of John (3:1-3). This is such an important part of Holy Scripture that I encourage you to read the entire chapter. It contains the essence of what it takes to get into Heaven and the alternative, which is a serious matter, but again, we cannot do this on our own. God wants to help us if we ask. So, I encourage you to read this chapter again privately and then see how you measure up. It can be a real eye opener.

The Gospel Reading is from the Gospel of Matthew (5:1-12a). This is the opening of the Sermon on the Mount, one of the most famous passages in the New Testament. And yet, do we really understand it? Often we hear familiar passages in church, and because they sound familiar we let them go over our head thinking we know all about it. But do we really? This opening, often called the Beatitudes, outlines the many benefits of those who are obedient to the teachings of Christ. The beatitudes start out simply but gradually increase in depth and reward. We may not be faced with all of them, but if you look back on your life you might see where you were faced with one or more of these challenges. How did you measure up?

All Saints Day is a special day when we want to remember in some special way all of those who have passed away, and hope that they have reached Heaven. Being with God is the goal of our life – or it should be. After all, the alternative is not that great!

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL

OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

All Saints Day - November 1

"How great is the value of conversation with Christ in the Blessed Sacrament, for there is nothing more consoling on earth, nothing more efficacious for advancing along the road of holiness." ~Pope Paul VI, Mysterium Fidei

All Souls Day - November 2

"I think that praying for the dead is one of the healthiest things we can do when we feel that death has robbed us of their presence... And in what better place could we pray for the dead than before the Eucharist, where we can experience Our Blessed Savior's presence? If we pray in the presence of the Lord, are we not like Martha and Mary?" ~Fr. Benedict Groeschel, CFR

Jesus told St. Gertrude that this prayer releases 1,000 souls from Purgatory:
"Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with all the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the holy souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal Church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen" ~St. Gertrude - Feast day: November 16th

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE

COME TO LOVE SUFFERING

I want you to detach yourself, not only from creatures, but also from yourself. My daughter, I want to delight in the love of your heart, a pure love, virginal, unblemished, untarnished. The more you will come to love suffering, My daughter, the purer your love for Me will be (Diary, 279).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:
Praise You, Lord Jesus, that You insisted to St. Faustina that she could never write enough about Your unfathomable mercy! Praise You, Jesus, for inspiring her. Amen.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE

FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"If that baby were outside the womb and you stuck a knife through its chest, you'd be charged with first degree murder; you kill it in the womb, and we call it a human right." ~Unknown

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION

NOVEMBER 2026 - FOR THE PROPER USE OF WEALTH

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less. Amen.
