A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

30TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

As I have done in the past, I will start with commenting on the Gospel first so that we can better understand the message of all the Readings for this Sunday. The reason for this is that the Gospel sums up the essence of the entire Bible including God's purpose for all of creation. Now, you might say, "Wow! That covers a lot of territory" and you would be right. So, let's investigate this deep subject further to find out what it is.

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (22:34-40). Shortly after Jesus outsmarts the Sadducees (last Sunday's reading about the "coin of tribute") a Pharisee comes to Jesus with another question to trip Him up. Jesus answers by summarizing all the commandments into just two, "Love of God and love of neighbor." Now, it might be natural to say, or think, "Ah ha, He outsmarted them again" and then forget about the next sentence: "The whole law and the prophets [teachings] depend on these two commandments." Jesus is not interested in playing games with the Pharisees or Sadducees, or us. He is giving them, and us, His "new" insight into the commandments, which, if kept sincerely and honestly, will gain us eternal life. So, with so much to gain, why is it that many people don't follow Him, or just ignore His instructions? Here He has taken the Ten Commandments and all the Jewish laws and condensed them to two. So, what's so difficult for humanity to understand?

The First Reading is from the Book of Exodus (22:20-26). In this passage, we have a more detailed version of some of the commandments involving "Love of neighbor." "Love" in this usage is meant to include all the components of that word: Respect, Helpfulness, Forgiveness, etc. "Neighbor" is anyone with whom we come in contact. Without much effort, one can see that these commandments do cover a lot of territory and they were given to all humanity fifteen hundred years before Jesus Christ. Jesus didn't change them; He just simplified them to include anyone and everyone.

The Responsorial Psalm (18:2-4, 47, 51) is a prayer of praise in response to those commandments pertaining to love of God. In its longer version, this psalm is a great prayer of thanksgiving to God in recognition of His divine authority and benevolence. You are encouraged to read it all and include it in your daily prayer.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians (1:5-10). In this passage, we hear how the Thessalonians responded to Paul's teachings early on, and now they have become model examples in loving God and neighbor. At the end, Paul gives us his own version of the idiom: "Actions speak louder than words."

If you were to go back and read the Gospel passage again, you would see how trivial the Pharisees are in testing Jesus. All the commandments should be in the minds and hearts of every person from a very early age, and we should live by them. St. Paul tells us: "Love never wrongs the neighbor; love is the fulfillment of the law." *(Romans 13:10)

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL

OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

"Adoration.
It is of no little comfort to me, I confess, when before the Tabernacle
I think that all those whom I have loved here on earth are adoring with me the same God — they face to face, I under the mystic veil.
Members of the Church Triumphant and the Church Militant we are kneeling before the same Redeemer, the same Father. My prayer rises to melt into the hymn of love which my dear ones beyond the tomb are lifting around the throne of the Lamb in their eternal dwelling,
I meet them again in this sacred assembly." ~St. John Baptist Scalabrini

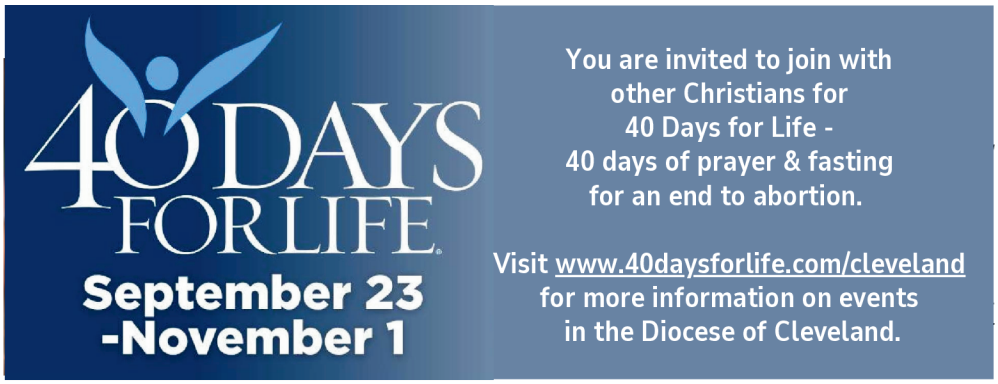

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE SECRETARY OF MY MERCY

My daughter, be at peace; do as I tell you. Your thoughts are united to My thoughts, so write whatever comes to your mind. You are the secretary of My mercy. I have chosen you for that office in this life and the next life (Diary, 1605). The words of Jesus appear in boldface type

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:
Praise You, Lord Jesus, that You insisted to St. Faustina that she could never write enough about Your unfathomable mercy! Praise You, Jesus, for inspiring her. Amen.
