A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

27TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME

The Responsorial Psalm gives us the theme of all the readings for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In the First Reading and the Gospel, keep in mind that both writers are not talking about agricultural vineyards, rather, the "vineyard" is a metaphor for the house of Israel or Judaism and the Jewish people of that time (7th or 6th century BC). In both readings it is God the Father who is the landowner and the Jewish people are the "tenants" who didn't take care of the vineyard that God had planted, but they neglected it and permitted wild grapes (foreigners) to move into the land. This reflects the time of the Jewish Monarchy (10th to the 6th century BC), as well as the time of Christ. However, don't be misled. This could very well reflect our own time, when we neglect what the Church is teaching us today. Let us see how this is illustrated in the readings.

In the First Reading, from the Prophet Isaiah (5:1-7), the Prophet is telling a story or a parable using the vineyard as a metaphor for Judah and the Jewish people who, during that time period, were falling further away from God and neglecting the faith and structure that Moses had established. Here also, God, through the prophet, is warning the people that this response to His love will only result in the vineyard being destroyed in the near future, and it was; but a small remnant always seemed to keep it alive only to be destroyed again for the same reasons.

The Responsorial Psalm (80:9-20) is a poem about the history of Judaism beginning with the time spent in Egypt where the Israelite People came together as a nation. God brought these enslaved people out under the leadership of Moses who gave them structure and a sense of Hope, but the people did not do their part to nourish this "plant or vine." The people begged God for help, and He repeatedly gave it generously, but they abused or neglected His love.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians (4:6-9). In connection with the other readings for this Sunday, this passage is telling us that God is not asking us to do great or unusual things for His Church, but each one of us should do his or her part according to the gifts given him or her, and that we should take care to nourish these gifts. As a result, the peace of God will come forth.

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (21:33-43). In this passage, we have a similar story about the vineyard. We should see the first "servants" as the early prophets (such as Elijah or Elisha) and the second group of servants as the later prophets (such as Isaiah and Ezekiel) who were sent to teach and exhort the Jewish people. Of course, the "son" who is killed by his own people is Christ Himself. With this knowledge, the story should be more understandable. The point to be made here is: Are we, today, observing the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Church the way we should, or are we just going through the motions and not bearing the fruit that is expected of each one of us?

Something to think about during your prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL

OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

Jesus said that faith can move mountains (See Mk 11:23).

Pope John Paul II said, "closeness to Christ in silence & contemplation does not distance us from our contemporaries but, on the contrary makes us attentive & open to human joy & distress & broadens our heart on a global scale. Through adoration, the Christian mysteriously contributes to the radical transformation of the world & to the sowing of the Gospel. Anyone who prays to the Savior draws the whole world with him & raises it to God" (Letter to Bishop of Liege, 1996).

When the Divine Mercy Messenger, St. Maria Faustina of the Blessed Sacrament, was praying before Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, He showed her a vision. Each time a person entered the chapel & visited Jesus exposed in a monstrance, she saw His Divine Rays of Love & Mercy burst forth & encircle the whole world & everyone in it with graces & blessings. Jesus told St. Faustina "I want Adoration to take place... for the intention of imploring Mercy for the world" (Divine Mercy Diary, 1070).

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE

LET GO OF YOURSELF

During Holy Hour today, I asked the Lord Jesus if He would deign to teach me about the spiritual life, Jesus answered me, My daughter, faithfully live up to the words which I speak to you. Do not value any external thing too highly, even if it were to seem very precious to you. Let go of yourself, and abide with Me continually (Diary, 1685). The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:
Lord Jesus, as You taught St. Faustina about the spiritual life, teach me, too, that I might "let go of myself and abide with You continually." Amen.
