A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 33RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

As we come closer to the end of the liturgical year, the readings focus on subjects like preparedness (today) & accountability (next Sunday). Collectively, all of these readings are encouraging us to think about our own end time & ask us the question: "Are you prepared for when you will be held accountable and judged?" To be clear, this doesn't need to be a time of fear. Rather, it should be a time for reflecting on how we have used our time, talents, & treasure, & then consider making whatever changes are necessary while there is still time.

The First Reading is from the Book of Proverbs (31:10-31). These verses are the very ending of the Book of Proverbs. They give us an example of a prudent & faithful wife who is well known and praised for her abilities in serving her family & others. It is not saying that all women should be wives & mothers; rather, it is an example of how one woman used her gifts & talents wisely & productively. Serving others is the epitome of Christian love whether it is shown toward family, friends or even strangers.

The Responsorial Psalm (128:1-5). In this beautiful prayer, the psalmist is praising the person who has been faithful to God & used his or her talents & resources for the betterment of everyone. The biblical use of the word "fear" in this case means "honor" or "respect."

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians (5:1-6). In this passage, Paul is talking about the Second Coming of Christ, which was thought to be coming in his lifetime. We should look at this as referring to our eventual death, which can come without any warning. We have been told repeatedly about being prepared for death by living in accordance with the teachings of Christ & His Church. "Therefore, let us not ignore the warning signs as many do, but let us stay alert and be watchful," spiritually speaking, that is.

The Gospel Reading is from the Gospel of Matthew (25:14-21). Here, we have a familiar parable, or story, which hardly needs explanation. God is the "man going on a journey" who gives each of us, his servants, certain talents or assets, which are to be used to increase the wealth of the rich man & his family. Obviously, we are the servants, & we will be held accountable at some point over the use of our time, talents & treasures. Will you be found wanting?

Stewardship is a moral obligation for every one of God's People. For those who have used their gifts or talents for the betterment of all, "more will be given to them;" but for those who have not used them wisely "what he has will be taken away from him." Keep in mind this simple axiom "What you are, and what you have, are God's gifts to you. What you do with them is your gift to God."

Something to think about during our prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

~St. Alphonsus Liguori

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, Religious, Patron of Immigrants, (1850-1917), Italy - Feast Day: November 13th

"In the shadow of your tabernacle where I can enjoy that intimate union with you which is paradise on earth."

St. Frances founded houses for Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, schools, orphanages and hospitals globally. She started Adoration and her sisters made Holy Hours every day despite their demanding schedule.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE

A THIRST FOR SOULS

During Holy Mass, I saw the Lord Jesus nailed upon the cross amidst great torments. A soft moan issued from His Heart. After some time, He said, I thirst. I thirst for the salvation of souls. Help Me, My daughter, to save souls. Join your sufferings to My Passion and offer them to the heavenly Father for sinners (Diary, 1032).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:
Lord Jesus, I hear Your cry of I Thirst. Help me to offer even the little sufferings I endure, as well as the big ones, for the salvation of souls. With Your help, I join them to Your Passion and offer them to the Heavenly Father for sinners. Amen.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE

FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

The right to life is not a woman's issue. The Lord is the giver of life and only He can make choices about life. It is always a reward to have life; only the Lord gives and takes life." ~Margaret Heckler, former Secretary of Health, Welfare, and Education

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION

NOV. 2026 - PROPER USE OF WEALTH

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less. Amen.
