A NOTE FROM THE PASTOR 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In recent months, we have heard a great deal about being prepared. All media has been after us to be prepared – for hurricanes, floods, tornados and other disasters. However, have you heard anyone say anything about being prepared to meet your maker? Usually, this phrase applies to condemned criminals or others about to die. The theme of the readings this week is very close to this "meeting your maker" idea, but it is a little more subtle. The emphasis is on the wisdom that is required to be truly prepared. The Spirit's Gift of Wisdom is ours for the asking.

The First Reading is from the Book of Wisdom (6:12-16). The Book of Wisdom is full of good advice for those seeking a deeper relationship with the Lord. Here, God encourages us to seek the gift of wisdom to be "prudent and keep vigil;" in other words be prepared.

The Responsorial Psalm (63:2-8). This beautiful prayer is said by one who is constantly seeking the Lord in everything he or she does. This is not just a preoccupation, but a genuine desire to follow the Lord every step of the way in life. The spiritually wise person will take counsel from this prayer.

The Second Reading is from St. Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians (4:13-18). The people of Thessalonica (in Greece) were overly concerned about those who were still alive at the time of Christ's Second Coming, thinking that it would soon happen. Would they be "left behind" when Christ came to take to Heaven those who had already died? Paul assures them that everyone will have the same opportunity to get to Heaven, provided they have prepared themselves by living their lives according to the teaching of Christ.

The Gospel Reading is from Matthew (25:1-13). In this passage, Jesus tells us the familiar story of the wise and foolish virgins. Unfortunately, many people get caught up in the "virgins" part and don't hear the last couple of lines in the story. This is all about being prepared, and one of the best ways of being prepared is by having a deep and sincere relationship with Christ. Without this, all other forms of preparedness would be somewhat self-serving. The people in the story who tried to get into the wedding reception (Heaven) late in the evening (of life) without being prepared will not gain entry because the bridegroom (Christ) did not get to know them. They never made time to form a relationship with Him. We can do much on our own initiative, but all would be of no value if what we have done is not in keeping with the will of God for us. So, we are challenged by this reading to ask ourselves if we are working at being prepared to meet our maker.

Something to think about during our prayer time this week.

Rev. Edward J. Smith

ST. ANTHONY ADORATION CHAPEL

OPEN MON - FRI FROM 9 AM TO 2 PM

St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop, Patron of Catechists (1538-1584) Italy - Feast Day: November 4th

"I was considering the love which the Lord Jesus has shown to us in willing to let Himself become food for us and in willing to die for love of us.... It is a stupendous thing that a miserable being, a vile creature should be so important before God, should be so highly regarded by Him, so much so that He would humble Himself for our salvation."

~St. Charles Borromeo

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity, Carmelite Nun, (1880-1906), France - Feast Day: November 8th

"When Our Lord was on earth the Gospel says a secret power went out from Him, at His touch the sick recovered their health, the dead were restored to life. Well, He is still living in His adorable Sacrament."

~St. Elizabeth

Give the gift of prayer! Spiritual Bouquet Cards are available in the St. Anthony office for a $3 donation.

DIVINE MERCY MESSAGE IN UNION WITH YOUR SUFFERINGS

I want your last moments to be completely similar to Mine on the cross. There is but one price at which souls are bought, and that is suffering united to My suffering on the cross. Pure love understands these words; carnal love will never understand them (Diary, 324).

The words of Jesus appear in boldface type*

My Prayer Response with St. Faustina:

Jesus, may Your love help me to offer my sufferings in union with Your sufferings on the Cross for the salvation of souls. May my last moments be similar to Yours on the Cross. All for the love of souls, Lord! Amen.

PRO-LIFE MESSAGE FROM PROLIFECORNER.COM

"Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains forever in a special relationship with the Creator."

~St. John Paul II

We must continue to pray constantly for an end to this evil that takes so many lives each year. We must not get discouraged!

POPE'S PRAYER INTENTION NOVEMBER 2026 - FOR THE PROPER USE OF WEALTH

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less. Amen.

ST. ANTHONY SCHOOL NEWS

It was a busy & exciting month at school in October! Our Kindergarten & 1st grade students enjoyed a fun-filled field trip to Apple Hill, while our 3rd & 5th grade students explored the Lake Erie Nature & Science Center. We came together as a school community for a pep rally honoring our CYO Fall athletes & celebrating their hard work & dedication. In recognition of Unity Day, students & staff wore orange to show their support for kindness, acceptance, & standing together. October also brought plenty of Halloween fun! We hosted our annual Trunk-or-Treat in the school parking lot, bringing families together for a festive afternoon. During the school day, students also enjoyed Halloween festivities with morning craft stations & an afternoon costume parade.
